THE DOW SCHOOL MATTER.

To the Editor of The Post: Houston, Texas, June 16—Inasmuch as the parents of the passengers of the Sixth ward are more directly interested in the success of the school than any other class have I endeavored to get the return of the parents of the Sixth ward to the school.

John Christopher, T. L. Alford, the principal of the new school, it seems that the school authorities should willingly and speedily make arrangements to have the school reopened.

This appears to be the wise reasonable and just course for the school authorities to pursue especially now when the school is in full operation.
